

Ui, Clark, and O'Casey: A White Haired Man Insulted

Lead sheet

Leeran Z. Raphaely

Start slow, get gradually faster

Ui:

If I may say what moves me in this hour at this shameful sight, a white-haired man in - sul - ted while his friends look on In si-lence. I trust you, Mis - ter Dogs - bor-ough and I ask: Is this the face of guilt? Is

Dm⁷ Am⁷ Dm⁷ Am⁷

Dm E⁷ Bbm

this the eye of one who fol-lows devious ways? Can you no lon-ger dis-tinguish white from black? A pre - tty pass if things have come to such a pass!

Gbm Bbm Gbm

F[△]#11 F#m

Clark:

The old man is above sus - pi-cion! How dare you suspect him of corruption?

E⁷ O'Casey:

Worse than that. A - buse of pub - lic trust. De -

17 Am B \flat m Am B \flat m B $^{\circ}$
 "Unex. Ditty" style

ceit and theft. Thus I accuse him now: That shipping line we've heard a-bout be -

20 E 7 B \flat m Am B \flat m Am longed to him when all that fraud was done _____