

Smarmy Love Song Returns
Leeran Z. Raphaely

Never gave myself a chance,
I tried it all except romance.
I didn't think the world was small,
But everything was so banal.

My eyes were shut because I feared the sight of light
I had the whole buffet, but I didn't take a bite.
I never felt like I was missing anything,
But all that soon would change.

The world looked just the same that day,
The last time it would seem that way.
It was impossible to see,
The gift the future had for me.

Cravin' something, but I didn't know just what.
Looked at everybody else, but I didn't get the fuss.

Then I saw you and you saw me,
and silently a melody
From deep inside of me
played just for you.

* Melody *
* modulate up minor 3rd *

Suddenly the night dissolved,
As if the Earth ceased to revolve.
How you felt, I was unsure,
You were acting too demure.

How was I to know if we were meant to be?
From the looks I gave to you and the look you gave to me.

Then I kissed you and you kissed me,
and we both heard a melody
From deep inside of me
played just for you.

*instrumental thing.....*

Finally a melody,
To tell you what you mean to me
Add some horn line harmonies,
Worth a million rupees.
*repeat*
